New Zealand is perfect for exploring by car. As you leave the cities behind and take to the open road you will find little traffic and mile upon mile of beautiful countryside just waiting to be explored.

Stop wherever and whenever you choose and make up your own schedule as you go.

Tailor Made Travel has negotiated excellent rates with Budget Car Rental who offer a comprehensive range of vehicles to suit every taste and pocket. There is a large network of branches across the country, including many of the airports and the Interislander ferry terminals in Wellington and Picton.

Roads are well maintained and uncrowded although can be winding and narrow, so time should be allowed for journeys which look only a short distance on the map. The majority of main roads are sealed, however you will find that many backcountry roads are gravel.

DRIVING IN NEW ZEALAND

Fuel

Fuel is sold by the litre and petrol stations are plentiful although trading hours, particularly in rural areas can vary. All Budget cars run on unleaded petrol while some of the 4WD vehicles are diesel.
